Jenkins Donelson Foundation
Stafford, VA 22554

Dear Friends,

Please accept my heartfelt thanks for the Jenkins Donelson Foundation's generous donation of sports coats, shoes, foot care supplies, socks, shirts, blankets, duffle bags with toiletry items, thank you cards for veterans, toe/foot/body warmers and other important goods to SOME in December. These critical items make a world of difference to the increased number of men, women and children who come to us in need.

With your support we meet daily emergency needs with food, clothing and medical care, we stabilize adults who are experiencing a psychiatric crisis, and we provide emergency housing for abused elderly. SOME also help us to provide services that break the cycle of homelessness – programs such as SOME's six-month intensive job training program, counseling, a residential addiction treatment program, and affordable housing. Our goal is to provide the tools that men, women, and children need in order to change their lives so they can regain their dignity and live independently.

SOME is blessed to have friends such as the Jenkins Donelson Foundation. It is because of you that we are able to meet the needs of thousands of individuals who come to us for help each year. Thank you for working with us to break the cycle of homelessness in our nation's capital.

Gratefully,
So Others Might Eat
