We quickly moved between cars, delivered our goods and alerted the recipient.

When he recognized his treasure, he grinned and brightened. "Thank you, thank you!" Bombas socks are always a hit!

Did you know the #1 requested item the homeless ask for are socks? It's true, so we always keep Bombas socks in our vehicles to give away to those in need. The photographs above tell the story of one of our encounters. Dodging waiting cars at a traffic light, we had to set the socks down and hurry back to our vehicle. We captured his smile of appreciation as we pulled away.

Thank you Bombas for donating socks each time customers make a purchase!

Pets Too!

The pandemic and job layoffs have magnified the food insecurity and tight budgets low-income families experience. Our pet food deliveries reduce some of that stress and help keep our four-legged family members stay healthy too!

Babies Goods On the Way

We keep baby goods on hand, and last month we put them to use. Loading and filling the vehicle was fun. The grateful moms were pleased and relieved.
